

Barber Flat Trail Head

The cabin and trail head is located along the North Fork of the Boise River, approximately 24.5 miles east of Idaho City. From Idaho City take highway 21 for 2.5 miles to Granite Creek Road #327 to Barber Flat cabin. The roads are graded, but may be in somewhat rough condition, and can be traveled in good weather with two wheel drive passenger cars or trucks. Please drive carefully as this road is heavily traveled. Cabin is open from Memorial Day Weekend in May to September 30th. Look for dispersed camping near the trail head. No stock is allowed at the Cabin.

Fishing in the North Fork of the Boise River, and trails run east and west from the cabin. Many swimming and fishing holes can be found within a short distance. The Hungarian/Sunset Trail is located across the road about 200 yards north of the cabin. The Beaver Creek/Grand Mountain Trail is just across the river or down the road one mile to the trailhead. The Short Creek Trail, where you can see osprey nests in snags along the river, is located at the confluence of Rabbit Creek and the North Fork Boise River. Barber Flat also has osprey nests and other wildlife viewing.
