

Kay Ryan

I had a conversation with Gwen this evening about the safety posters and in the process she was telling me about the way they transport gravel in buckets. She says this way they can take stuff to the site and it is easier to move around where they need it. Of course, she says their trails are a lot shorter than the ones we face but she just wanted to share what they use. I have attached some photos of the shelf panniers and buckets.

Bud Wills, Pennsylvania Equine Council, State Trail Chair

Gwen Wills, Trail Stewardship Program Director

814-379-3759, gwwills@pennswoods.net

